

Alaska

After losing ground in afterschool program participation from 2004 to 2009, the percentage of Alaska children taking part in an afterschool program crept up slightly, from 18 percent in 2009 to 19 percent in 2014. The percentage of Alaska parents satisfied with their child's afterschool program remains above the national average-more than 9 in 10 parents. Alaska also saw an increase in the percentage of parents extremely satisfied with their child's afterschool program (74 percent), taking the number one spot in the nation.
